

Berkeley Presbyterian Mission Homes

The multi-faith program, beginning with the Abrahamic faith traditions, strives to build beloved community experientially among residents of diverse faith traditions. Through shared learning and by mutually supporting one another in a climate of growth, we aim to be the spiritual building blocks for a world of peace, justice, and love. Our core values are mutual respect, open heartedness and open mindedness, community spirit, and inclusivity. [BPMH Mission Statement]

NOTE: Residents are expected to be actively engaged in a program of study and research. Eligibility for subsidized rent is limited to the duration of the study program or project or five years, whichever period is shorter.

Pets are not allowed in any units except service animals. A service animals must be registered as such with the Director and owners must comply with the rules in the Pet Policy posted on the BPMH website (<http://www.bpmh.net>).
